(A) The new fee schedule for B-1 and B-2 visas does NOT affect the eligibility of French citizens to participate in the Visa Waiver Pilot Program (VWPP). France does not require visas for U.S. citizens visiting France for business or pleasure for a period of up to 90 days, nor are visas required for French citizens visiting the United States for up to 90 days and who meet the other conditions in the VWPP.

(B) For petitions valid up to 90 days no fee, multiple entries, 3 months.

SPECIAL CLEARANCE AND ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

(TL:VISA-176; 02-06-1998)

Clearance requests in immigrant visa cases must be sent not only to the consular post located in the applicant's area of residence, but also to the U.S. Embassy.

Clearance requests in nonimmigrant visa cases need only be sent to the office concerned. Clearance requests involving outside checks require 1 month for French Guiana cases, 2 months for Guadeloupe, and 3 to 4 months for Martinique.

Posts with CLASS capability should not send clearance requests to Paris unless a CLASS check indicates derogatory information on file there.

DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

(TL:VISA-176; 02-06-1998)

Note: If it is claimed that an original record was made in a territory devastated during the war, positive proof of the non-existence of the record may be obtained from the appropriate authorities in the form of a letter or certificate.

The form of a document often varies according to the district in which it is issued. Documents are sometimes typed, but frequently written in long-hand, and all of them, except military discharges, bear appropriate fee stamps, as well as the signature and seal of the issuing authority. Fraud in the issuance of such documents is rare.

The foregoing information applies to all departments of France, regardless of location.

If further information is required, the "grosse de jugement" should be requested. Both documents may be obtained from the Greffe du Tribunal or Palais de Justice where the conviction took place.

Military records are not available to persons who are not liable to military service.
